

100
POINTS

BY
JAMES SUCKLING

LALIQUE

CLICK HERE TO BUY THE GLASS

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

MY PICKS OF THE WEEK

You may be seeing more Barolo Cannubi in the market following an Italian high court decision that allows about two-dozen wine producers to use the famous designation. As the maker of the only film on the sacred area, you may be interested to hear my thoughts on it in my latest blog. I'm also giving you a chance to watch the 23-minute documentary "Cannubi: A Vineyard Kissed By God" for free this week with the blog. It will give you the background to decide for yourself, and below I'd like to hear your comments and vote in the poll. Click here for everything Cannubi.

For My Picks Of The Week I've chosen five outstanding 2008 Barolo Cannubis. If you buy some, see if you can tell the difference between the "Cannubi Cannubi" and the Cannubi Boschis or Cannubi San Lorenzo.

My Five Top Weekly Wine Picks

2008 Damilano Barolo Cannubi (Cannubi Cannubi)

2008 Paolo Scavino Barolo Cannubi (Cannubi Cannubi)

2008 Marchesi di Barolo Barolo Cannubi (Cannubi Muscatel)

2008 Luciano Sandrone Barolo Cannubi Boschis (Cannubi Boschis)

2008 Giacomo Borgogno & Figli Barolo Cannubi (Cannubi San Lorenzo)

(Click on any of the wine names above to read the notes and scores and see who comes in top!)

Don't forget you'll need to be a premium subscriber to know everything there is on Barolo.
Click to subscribe today.

Best,
James

JamesSuckling.com

